

UNLOCKING THE MYSTERY OF AUSTRALIAN TAX PLANNING FOR EXPATS AND FOREIGN INVESTORS!

12th November

Registration: 5:30am
Seminar: 6:00pm

Venue: Distrii Meeting Room, Level 7, 968
Neijing West Rd, Jing'an, Shanghai

Registration:

www.smats.net/events
conciierge@smats.net

FREE EVENT. BOOKINGS ESSENTIAL

We are pleased to extend this invitation to our upcoming workshop on Australian Tax Planning.

We will present a comprehensive guide to the fundamentals of Australian Tax Planning and tax effective investment strategies that work for you while overseas and upon your eventual return or migration to Australia.

Join us to discover how to maximise your unique financial opportunities as an Australian expat or foreign investor during your time abroad and learn how you can return home debt free on your Australian intended residence using tax planning strategies.

Join us at this important workshop as we explain:

- ◆ Post-Election update and what that means for investors;
- ◆ Australian residency rules and how to manage tax residency long-term;
- ◆ Expat tax planning with a real-time scenario using our unique tax planning tools;
- ◆ Tax effective investment strategies while working abroad and upon return or migration to Australia;
- ◆ Superannuation contributions while non-resident – a tax perspective, and
- ◆ Property investment tax analysis covering internal rates of return and the multiplier effect.

PRESENTER: Ravin Chatlani

Ravin Chatlani is a director of the SMATS Group and manages the Singapore, Malaysian and Indonesian operations of Australasian Taxation Services.

SMATS Group is the operating arm for Australasian Taxation Services (ATS). Since 1995, ATS has managed the Australian taxation needs of approximately 20,000 expatriates and non-resident Australian landlords through its network of 11 offices worldwide. Ravin's area of Australian tax expertise includes non-resident property investment, expatriate and migration tax planning.

Ravin is a regular presenter on taxation matters for Australian expatriates and property investors. He has presented on behalf of the Australian Chamber of Commerce in Shanghai, the SMART Property Expo exhibitions in Malaysia, Singapore and Beijing as well as to expatriates and investors in Ho Chi Minh, Hong Kong, Kuching, Kota Kinabalu and Dubai.

PRESENTER: Matt Heron

Matt's unique perspective, insights and practical investment experience offer Australian expats a living case study of how to make your expat experience financially life changing.

A long-term Australian expat and property investor, as well as a SMATS Group client and shareholder, Matt successfully self-funded his youthful retirement at 45, using the services provided by SMATS Group.

When a family opportunity opened up in China, Matt was ready to take up the challenge of expanding a new market for SMATS Group. He is dedicated to maintaining the integrity of service and ensuring that client expectations are met or exceeded in a timely, effective and ethical manner.

All information provided at this workshop is of a general nature only and does not take into account your personal financial circumstances or objectives. Before making a decision on the basis of this material, you need to consider, with or without the assistance of a financial adviser, whether the material is appropriate in light of your individual needs and circumstances. The information at this seminar does not constitute a recommendation to invest in or take out any of the products or services provided by SMATS Financial Consulting (Shanghai) Co. Ltd.