CELEBRATE INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

With Habitat for Humanity

Wednesday, 16 March
2:00pm – 2:45pm

The last several decades have delivered major progress for women worldwide, with literacy, life expectancy and pay at or near historic highs. However huge disparities remain, particularly in developing nations.

We will be joined by Jo Hayes and Katherine Rumble from Habitat for Humanity, as we discuss some of the key preconceptions that still hold women back today. And showcase some of the ways charities, organisations and individuals are working to break the bias.
